The California Disaster.

The terrible earthquake and the sufferings which have followed in its wake are appending to the entire country, and contributions for the sufferers have been promptly and liberally made.

Alexandria desires to be represented among the donors, and those in positions to do so have signified their willingness to add to the contributions which are coming spontaneously from all quarters of the United States.

The Old Dominion Glass Works have subscribed $50, and the employees $150 to the fund for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers. The money will be forwarded through the Citizens' National Bank.

The Catholic Women's Benevolent League have made arrangements to give a euchre party at Sodality Lyceum Hall next Tuesday night for the purpose of raising money for the sufferers.

As heretofore stated, a collection will be taken up tomorrow at Christ Church for the benefit of the San Francisco sufferers.

The agent of the Adams Express Company announces that the company will send contributions to the sufferers free of charge.

John Paul Jones.

Arrangements have been completed for holding the joint memorial exercises by Alexandria-Washington and Andrew Jackson lodges of Masons in honor of the memory of Admiral John Paul Jones, Tuesday next the date of the interment at Annapolis. The exercises will consist principally of eulogies on the first American admiral. Admiral Winfield Scott Selby, United States navy, retired, has accepted an invitation to be present and deliver an address. Grand Master K. Kemper, of Virginia will preside at the exercises and Mr. C. C. Carlin will deliver the opening address. The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Messrs R. W. Arnold, C. H. Callahan and W. A. Moore, jr., of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, and H. K. Field, C. B. Marshall and Samuel P. Fisher of Andrew Jackson Lodge. Owing to the limited seating capacity of the lodge room admission will be by card. There will be no banquet.

Potomac Lodge.

As has heretofore been stated, preparations are being made by Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., for the observance of the 87th anniversary of the organization of the lodge. There will be an entertainment next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the hall on north Columbus street. An interesting programme of exercises has been prepared, and talent from Washington will be present. Tomorrow night week the members of the lodge and a large number of their friends will gather in Grace Church where Rev. Edgar Carpenter will deliver a sermon appropriate to the occasion. Messrs D. R. Stansbury, James R. Mansfield and P. M. Bradshaw are the committee in charge.

Opera House.

The Jolly Bonnie Vance Company gave an excellent rendition of "Poor Mr. Rich" at the Opera House last night, the audience seeming to be well pleased with the show. The specialties were decidedly good, especially those of Cook and Peil and the Creighton Sisters, the former being very clever. The company gave a matinee this afternoon and will close their week's engagement tonight in "Our Flats." A great many specialties will be introduced.

Deepening Dock.

The dock adjoining the ferry slip of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company on the north is being dredged in order to provide a berth for either of the new ferry steamers should it be rendered necessary when repairs are needed. This dock was used for many years by the steamers T. V. Arrowsmith and Wakefield when those boats were operated by the old Washington and Alexandria Ferry Company.

The Market.

There was an average supply of country produce in market this morning. A considerable quantity of green stuff was on the benches and was being sold at moderate figures. Staple articles, however, were unchanged in prices.

Personal.

Mr. A. G. Uhler represented the Southern Presbyterian church at the meeting of Chesapeake Presbytery which convened last Tuesday at Leesburg.

Dr. J. H. Bitzer has regained the use of his right hand which was so severely cut about two months ago.

Mr. Barney Deavers, father of Mr. Andrew Deavers, of this city, is seriously ill at his home at Gambrell Postoffice, Fairfax county.

Judge J. K. M. Norton who has returned from Charlottesville where he turned to attend a meeting of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia, of which he is a member, says considerable business was transacted at the meeting in the interest of the University.

Judge and Mrs. McIntyre, of Cambridge, Mass., and Mr. Edmund Darnell, of Atlantic City, were in the city yesterday on their way to Mt. Vernon and while here were the guests of Mr. Courtland Lukins.

Miss Bertina, daughter of Councilman Henry Bader, celebrated her eighteenth anniversary last evening at the home of her father on King street. A large number of friends assembled in the spacious parlors that had been beautifully decorated with cut flowers and evergreens in honor of the occasion. Eachere was engaged in and elegant refreshments were served. Prizes were awarded Miss Sallie Patterson and Mr. Patrick Gorman. A delightful evening was spent and at twelve fifteen all departed for their homes, wishing the young debutante many years of unalloyed happiness and joy.

The Hon. Henry Strauss, of Alexandria, who has been quite ill for some time, has much improved and is the guest of his son-in-law, Mr. Phil Leterman, in this city.—[Charlottesville Progress.]

A Good Friend.

Mr. Chauncey L. Southern not only proved himself a clever actor, but a good friend as well. The other day, while riding down Broadway in his automobile Mr. Southern saw one of his friends standing on the sidewalk, looking very much downcast. "What's the matter old man," asked Mr. Southern. "I have just returned from the road," said his friend, "where our manager skipped out and left the whole company stranded, and I have been to see a lawyer, who has given me a summons for the manager to come to court, but as I can't afford to employ a marshal to serve it, neither can I do it myself, I am as bad off as I was before." "Then give it to me," said Mr. Southern. And after securing the address of the manager, Mr. Southern drove his auto down to his house, and by pretending to be looking for a manager for his own company this season, he secured an interview with him, who had for a week been dodging process servers, and served him with the summons. Mr. Southern stands for right and justice at all times. Mr. Southern and his company will appear at the Opera House Monday night.

The Fishery.

Fish are arriving more freely at Fish-town, but the demand continues about equal to the supply. Prices, however, are not so firm as was the case during the earlier part of the week. Herring this morning were quoted at from $3.50 to $4.50 per thousand, and it was said that they were selling at lower figures in Washington. Shad were quoted at from $15 to 40 per hundred. About 10,000 herring, consigned to one of the Alexandria commission merchants, and said to be in an unseasonable condition, were not allowed to be landed at Fish-town yesterday.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late David H. Plaster, who died at Bluemont, Loudoun county, on Thursday last, were brought to this city early this afternoon on a Washington and Ohio train and the remains were later interred. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Bullis. The deceased had been a sufferer from heart disease. He married a Miss George, of this city, and is survived by his widow and two brothers, Dr. George E. Plaster, of Bluemont, and Mr. J. W. Plaster, of Leesburg.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Jones, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with assaulting and beating Wm. H. Peck and wife, was fined $5.

Wm. H. Jones, arrested by the same officer charged with being a party to the assault, was fined $10.

John Penn, arrested by Officer Knight and Arrington charged with being drunk in this street, was dismissed.

German.

The Alexandria German Club gave their last dance of the season at McBurney's Hall last night. The dance was largely attended, many out-of-town people being present. The chaplains were Mrs. Geo. Uhler, J. S. Douglas, H. F. Robertson, T. M. Jones, G. A. Mushbach and J. F. Tackett. The German was led by Mr. Harry Beverley with Mrs. Soule, of Washington, and the music was by Schroeder's orchestra. During the evening refreshments were served by the Messrs. Rammel.

Auction Sale.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt sold at public auction today in front of the Fairfax street entrance to the Corporation Court House for R. H. Cox, Sergeant, a safe and record books of Alexandria city and Fairfax county property, heretofore belonging to Virginia Title Company, to Mr. L. H. Machen for $2,850.

Sharps and Flats.

A meeting of Sharps and Flats was held last night at which it was decided to present "Pinafore" at the Opera House within the next thirty days, under the management of Mrs. M. W. O'Brien.

A Badly Burned Girl.

or boy, young or woman, is quickly out of pain if Bucklen's Arnica-Salve is applied promptly. G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., says: "I use it to my family for cuts, sores and all skin injuries, and find it perfect." Quickest cure known. Best healing salve made. See at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Wedding.

Miss Mary Abigail Nourse, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James M. Nourse, and Dr. J. Edgar Myers, of New Windsor, Md., were married in this city this afternoon, the ceremony taking place at four o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Albert D. Brockett, on north Washington street. Though quite informal it was one of the prettiest weddings of the season and was attended by quite a number of guests from out-of-town. The parlors were adorned with southern snail and spring flowers and blossoms.

Rev. Mr. Nourse, the bride's father, performed the ceremony. The bride entered the parlors with the groom. They were preceded by little Clarence Boyce Nourse, as ring bearer, and little Misses Charlotte Myers and Catharine Nourse acted as ribbon bearers. After the ceremony a repast was spread in the dining room, and later in the evening Dr. and Mrs. Myers left for a short stay at Atlantic City, and on their return will make their home in New Windsor, where the groom is a most popular young physician.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's elder brother, Mr. A. Homer Nourse, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence D. Nourse, of Baltimore; Miss Charlotte Glenn, of Norfolk; Miss Victoria Peed, of Norfolk; Prof. Frank A. Russell, of New York; Prof. and Mrs. Thomas H. Sidwell, of Washington; Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Myers, of Washington; Miss S. A. Doughty, of New Jersey; Dr. and Mrs. James Ashley, of Washington; Mr. J. Frank Nourse, of Washington, brother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Myers, of New Windsor, Md., parents of the groom.

The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's father, Dr. J. Edgar Myers, and the groom's father, Dr. J. Edgar Myers, and the groom's mother, Mrs. James M. Nourse.

The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve never fails to give satisfaction for burns, sores, boils, itching, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and these are probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.
